THURSTON BEATS REDSKIN.

Old Freeland's brother Thurston won a fast race from Redskin and Logan at Ideal Park yesterday, and did it in a gentlemanly way. Ham, after four weeks on the ground, owing to a broken collar bone, rode the old horse and handled him perfectly. Thurston was naturally the favorite, and even money seemed a big price against him. The public took another chance at sulky old Redskin, and backed him from four to three. He ran true, but simply was not good enough to win. It was a well paced race and a pretty one to look at. On the far turn a blanket would have covered the trio, and they raced that way for nearly a quarter of a mile. In the stretch Ham called on Thurston, but the good horse did not need much urging, and, drawing clear at the eighth pole, won rather handily.

The Kentucky stable had a good day, winning two purses with Jack of Spades and Ingomar. Neither was played here. They thought Jack of Spades not good enough, and expected Ingomar to sulk. The latter was clearly the class of his race, still he receded in the betting from 7 to 5 to 13 to 5. He was off badly, ran around his field and won in a game way.

Jack of Spades' victory was a lucky one. He bumped into and knocked Necedah off his stride at the start and just beat her on the end. The filly ran pounds the best race and with better luck could not have lost.

Lone Princess won the two-year-old race and did it so cleverly and in such fast time that she convinced many that she is a filly of some class.

Sidkel was an odds on favorite for the first race, but Ida M beat him in a drive by three parts of a length.

Sid Regan has bought Farmer Leigh from "Tully" Coulter.

RACING GOSSIP.

Eugene Leigh went to St. Louis last Saturday night. From there he goes to Frisco for the winter, with eight horses and two jockeys—J. Gardner and A. Thompson. "I've kissed the farm good bye" he said before he left. "Coulter has discharged me as a trainer. It was on account of Bonnie Dundee losing right and winning wrong. But men are ungrateful and apologetic. Coulter's a worse trainer than I am. I'm bad, too. But there are more—and many; not others. Pat Dunne, too, has 'let me out' because I won a race with Strathrol while I was his trainer and Dunne was absent—and had Strathrol run up $500. Everything I have—except old Bramble—is for sale. There's no price on Bramble." Leigh is one of the keen figures of the turf. He doesn't think there should be any outlaws. He's right, too. What a man owns is his own and for use. Most of the outlaws—so-called—are products of the American idea of do-the-best-you-can-with-what-you-have-got. Outlawry is an expedient and an apology for classification. The rich turfman has no fundamental right to tell the poor turfman when and where or at what season he shall use what he has. The rich owner has a right to legislate for himself and choose his company. Such angles are broad and human—though they may be less than democratic. There is not a large enough class of aristocracy in American turfdom to make outlawry reasonable.

Mr. Leigh takes with him to California Patrician, Contrition, Suisun, Lady Loomar, Good Times, Arrezzo, Yama, b. c. 2, by Leonatus—Lillian Lindsay, and King Cade, b. c. 2, by Kinglike—Cadence. He bought Suisun from M. F. Dwyer, Patrician from Phil Dwyer, and Arrezzo from the Levy-Oppenheimer outfit, which is under the Eastern ban. The Arrezzo deal was a costly one for Leigh. He sold the Aretino—Libbie L colt well. He is a maiden, but was a wonder in work last spring. When the Eastern stable got into trouble Leigh had to buy Arrezzo back for some $4,500, pay nearly $700 for training expenses and go to stout effort to get the horse into good standing. Lady Inez ran in the Leigh colors at Cincinnati recently. She is not in the Leigh stable, but has been sold back to Bill McGuigan.

The St. Louis corner of the Turf Congress was less than wise in applying intimidation to owners who proposed to compete in the racing events at the Springfield, Ill., State Fair. The reason given was that of competition against outlaws. The Springfield officials took the right stand. They declared that their events were open and that they knew no bar. There should be none. Every racing association or club has a right to receive or reject tools, but no one club or one hundred clubs has any right to tell an owner when and where he shall race or earn his living with the stock he has. The "outlaw" term is one of the uglinesses of the American turf. It should be erased at once. The broad trouble is that of ignorance of local happenings and keen needs in a territory too large to be intelligently governed by six, much less two, turf bodies. The Jockey Club scarcely knows its own. The Turf Congress is far less intelligent in its range than the Jockey Club.

St. Louis racing will probably be controlled after this year. The Missouri legislature which has already prohibited foreign betting will be likely to pass a 45 or 60 days racing law at its next session.

Domino will have more than the usual chance of a young sire. He has been bred by that courtly gentleman Major Dangerfield, who rules Castleton for Mr. Keene, to the following English mares: Editha, Fair Vision, Queen of Shalba, Sundown, Belle Rose, Citronella, Dancing Water, Dutch Flag, Lady Gay, Mere Hill, Sylvabelle, Royal Nun and Bonnie Gal. Then too the great horse has been mated with the American mares Lucy Wallace, the dam of Sparkling Ella T who has given the country Banquet, Tea Tray and Defender and Glooming.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Pat Corrigan's lot, which includes Neutral and Frontier, will winter at Memphis.

Leopold de Rothschild was the largest winner of 1896 on the English turf. After him comes the Prince of Wales, and then Lord Rosebery and the Duke of Westminster.

Enquirer, Cincinnati, O.—The horses are distinct racing figures. Doctor Huger is a chestnut colt, 3, by The Jacobite—Charlotte, owned by the Palmetto Stable and Dan Huger a bay colt, 2, by Simple Simon—Salara, the dam of Toano, owned by George C. Bennett.

First Mate is probably the best of the Western three-year-olds. He has won seven out of his eight starts this season. Kentuckians think him as good as Requitat at his best. The colt is a noble individual and comes by his quality through grand ancestral lines. He is by Fonso—Shipmate.

DETROIT RACING FORM.

The Detroit depot for DAILY RACING FORM is the Russell House news stand, Michigan News Co. 40 Congress St. West and the Hotel Cadillac news stand. It will be on sale there by 9 o'clock every morning.

Time, 24¼, 49¾, 1:01¾.

Winner—Ch. m. a. by Linden C—Angora.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third ridden out. Ida M had too much speed for Sidkel. The latter made a strong bid in the stretch, but simply was not good enough to win. Repeater acted much better at the post and ran a good race. He can win a selling race. The Rook showed some speed, but not much. She has a bad leg and it hurt her. Gus K finished very strong. Watch him with a good boy up.

Scratched—Miss Frances, 95; Roger B, 92; Hands Off, 94; Little Thorn, 98; Ella Penzance, 99.

Time, 25, 50¼, 1:03, 1:15½, 1:29¼.

Winner—B. h. 5, by Magnetiser—Nellie James.

Post 12 minutes. Start fair. Jack of Spades was all out and swerving. He could not have lasted much longer. Davis was given waiting instructions, but the horse was so rank he could not be placed. Necedah was the best and should have won. She and Jack of Spades collided at start and the filly was knocked off her stride. She made up a lot of ground and was the fresher at the finish. Abbess ran a cracking good race. Boy rode him like a blacksmith. Miss Clark and Proverb caused the delay at the post.

Scratched—Cherrystone, 108; Toots, 109; Lulu T, 105; Cerita, 105.

4695 THIRD RACE—5 1-2 Furlongs. Purse $300. 2-year-olds. Allowances.

Time, 24, 48, 1:00¾, 1:07.

Winner—Ch. f. by Prince Royal—Lonely.

Post 10 minutes. Start good. Won handily; next four driving hard. Lone Princess is a real good filly and she was well ridden. Lady Callahan had a world of speed, but tired when the pinch came. She has a habit of running out, but kept in line today. Sutton is getting good. Domitor ran a bad race. Lake View Palace was heavily played and ran fairly. Congo was crazy at the post.

Scratched—Croesus, 94; Tom Smith, 94.

Overweights—Congo, 5 pounds.

Winner—B. g. 5, by Longfellow—Belle Knight.

Post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily. It was a hard fight for the place. Redskin ran true but Thurston was the best horse. He was also best handled. Logan was played by his party and ran an honest race.

Scratched—Umbrella, 98.

Winner—B. g. 6, by Bubbler—Josephine.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving hard; second and third ridden out. Ingomar won on his class. He was inclined to sulk, but boy nursed him along well. Glenoid had a lot of speed but could not hold it. The Sculptor ran a good race and hung on gamely. Devault was off badly and in pocket most of the way. He finished very strong and with clear sailing might have won. Minerva, off badly, showed no speed at all. Frank Jaubert's saddle girth broke on the far turn and boy pulled him up. Ragner ran an honest race.

Scratched—Mollie King, 105; Old Man, 100; Wells Street, 101.
